

Name _____

*This is the bread of affliction
which our ancestors are in the land of Mitzrayim
All who are hungry, let them enter and eat.
All who are in need, let them come celebrate pesach.
Now we are here. Next year in the land of Israel.
Now we are enslaved. Next year we will be free.*

Translation of Ha Lachma Anya from Feast of Freedom haggadah, Rabbinical Assembly

1

Is there a problem in this world that this text points towards?

Is there a value that this prayer points towards?

What does this prayer mean to you?

---

---

---

2

Describe the connection you feel to the Jewish people when you say this text and others.

---

---

---

3

If someone asked you what responsibility you have to the people in your community, what would you say and why?

---

---

---

4

What action do you plan to take in your school, family, or town?

---

---

---